MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

Morning Meeting of 16 June 1967

Godfrey discussed Soviet arms deliveries to the Middle East and commented on the size and composition of the Soviet delegation for the special session of the General Assembly. The Director suggested that he discuss the composition with the Department of State. Godfrey said that OCI is preparing a memorandum on the delegation today.

Kent informed the Director that the reps have agreed that another NIE on China is not necessary at this time.

DD/S&T said that the Ramo Panel is satisfied. Its report will be distributed to the USIB principals.

DDCI called attention to an ONE memorandum on Nigeria and suggested dissemination. The Director agreed.

[REDACTED]

The Director said that the studies prepared for McGeorge Bundy had been fine.
